

March 2011: Our Attorney Hanishi Ali featured in India New England news paper as a founder of NetSAW

— Network for South Asian American Women Entrepreneurs and Professionals

— an all-volunteer based organization that promotes career advancement and leadership development of South-Asian American women entrepreneurs and professionals in all fields through professional development, networking, leadership, community service, and social events.