

November 2010: Our Attorney Hanishi Ali featured in Worcester Business Journal: Women In Business Award Recipient

an all-volunteer based organization that promotes career advancement and leadership development of South-Asian American women entrepreneurs and professionals in all fields through professional development, networking, leadership, community service, and social events.