

We represent business enterprises and investors looking to expand internationally. Our attorneys protect clients' legal rights and their investments, working from a strong understanding of the needs of international businesses and how they intersect with laws of the respective countries. We deliver expertise and experience and become a trusted member of our clients' team.

In today's global economy, where businesses and investors need to be armed with accurate information and be prepared to take quick decisions, Mithras Law Group has the expertise to help your businesses across a range of specialized services, including:

- Corporate and business transactions
- Strategic advice
- Corporate and commercial agreements
- Incorporation and corporate governance
- Business immigration
- Entrepreneur
- Procurement
- Global market and clients
- Local or Virtual In-house counsel
- Arbitration

In addition, Mithras Law Group's presence in Mumbai and a developing practice in key international markets including India, United Kingdom, China, and the Middle East make it well-positioned and an excellent choice for clients looking for advice and guidance in the international arena.