

We provide in-bound, out-bound, and cross border transactions for clients of all sizes located worldwide. We collaborate with strategic immigration partners worldwide to assist our clients in effortless movement of global migration of their labor force while helping them to keep their costs low and maintain legal compliance.

We also work with labor and employment attorneys as well as tax practitioners globally to make sure that we offer comprehensive mobility advice that takes into account all aspects of complex migration issues that can be faced by our clients.

We understand that the immigration filing procedures and cross-border transactions can be complex and daunting. Our lawyers can help you with a wide array of immigration services – whether it is corporate or business immigration or family-based immigration and/or naturalization. We can help qualified foreign nationals with obtaining the appropriate visas including:

- Visitor's visas
- Business visas, including temporary work visas for U.S. employers bringing in foreign workers, including E, H, J, L, O, P and Treaty NAFTA visas and passport services
- Temporary work and residence permits
- Employment based permanent residence applications, immigrant petitions and adjustment of status cases
- Naturalization and passports
- Help with visa issuance and entry and exit procedures
- Guidance for security and medical clearance procedures
- Advice and guidance on short-term and long-term transfer of personnel for global mobility across all national borders
- Family member related processing, including work permits, student visas, spouse visas and guidance as to maintenance of status.
- Comprehensive immigration strategies that involve human resources, employment, and tax in home as well as host country
- I-9 Compliance Audits